Strong roots, global vision

ENA & Abogados is a boutique business law firm based in Zaragoza, Aragón, advising clients throughout Spain in corporate and commercial law, litigation and dispute resolution, compliance, privacy and tax.

We work with Spanish and foreign companies from multiple sectors, such as real estate and construction, FMCG, retail, hospitality, technology, manufacturing, logistics and energy.

Our lawyers combine a genuine concern for our clients' actual needs with a rigorous technical approach. Through our network of collaborators, we also support clients in matters with an international dimension, especially with our partners from Horizon Consulting Network

Corporate and commercial law

Business law in a broad sense

Our practice covers the full spectrum of business law, with particular emphasis on corporate law, commercial contracts, M&A and insolvency matters.

Litigation and dispute resolution

Commercial litigation across Spain

We represent clients before all courts across Spain in business-related disputes, especially in civil and commercial matters.

Compliance

Integrity is our best strategy

We advise Spanish and international companies on compliance obligations. Our approach is tailored to each organization's size and specific needs.

Privacy

Confidentiality at the core of our work

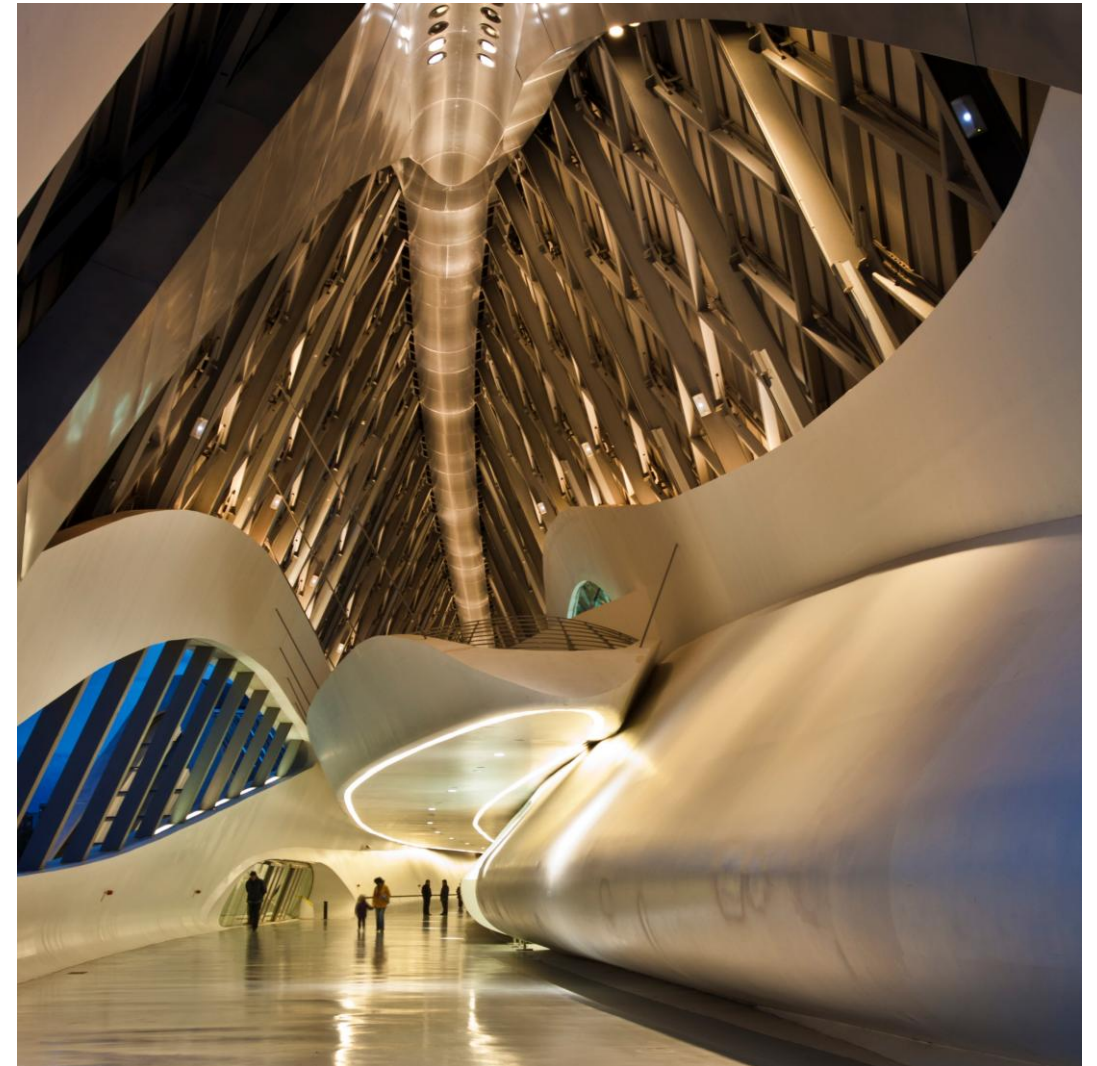

We help companies, professionals and other organizations comply with privacy and data protection requirements while managing the legal and reputational risks associated with personal information.

Tax law

Clear advice for domestic and cross-border needs

Our firm offers specialized tax advisory services to companies across all sectors, with a strategic approach that ensures regulatory compliance, tax efficiency, and protection against tax-related risks.
